

CHARLES TUCKER
Born Jan. 14, 1842, Eastdown, Devonshire,
Eng. Came to Utah September, 1863.
President of Seventies. Agriculturist.

599

TUCKER, CHARLES (son of John Tucker of Highbray, Devonshire, Eng., born 1805, and Susan Blackmore of Kentisbury, Devonshire, born 1809). He was born Jan. 14, 1842, at Eastdown, Devonshire. Came to Utah Sept. 25, 1863, Peter Nebeker company.

Married Betsy Rawle July 23, 1863, at Florence, Neb.

1217

(daughter of John Rawle and Nancy Blackmore), who was born July 9, 1832. Family home Morgan, Utah.

Married Mary Smith 1882, Salt Lake City (daughter of William and Grace Smith), who was born 1832, in England. Family home Milton, Morgan Co., Utah.

Married Annie Hardman Dec. 12, 1884, Logan, Utah (daughter of John Hardman and Ann Seddon), who was born Aug. 30, 1866, Haydock, Eng. Their children: Ann and Susan (twins) b. June 24, 1886; Charles J. b. July 16, 1889; Janet Pearl b. March 30, 1891; Olive Jane b. April 9, 1893; Moroni James b. Oct. 19, 1898; Harold Nephi b. Dec. 29, 1909. Family home Milton, Morgan Co., Utah.

Assisted in building the first stage and mail route through Morgan county, 1865; worked on first transcontinental railroad, 1867; answered the call for volunteers to commence the building of St. George temple. One of the presidents of 35th quorum seventies, 1889; filled mission to England, returning in 1901. Agriculturist and horticulturist.

1218

CHARLES TUCKER
Born Jan. 14, 1842, Eastdown, Devonshire,
Eng. Came to Utah September, 1863.
President of Seventies. Agriculturist.

TUCKER, CHARLES (son of John Tucker of Highbray, Devonshire, Eng., born 1805, and Susan Blackmore of Kentisbury, Devonshire, born 1809). He was born Jan. 14, 1842, at Eastdown, Devonshire. Came to Utah Sept. 25, 1863, Peter Nebeker company.

Married Betsy Rawle July 23, 1863, at Florence, Neb.